

EVENING PLEASURES.

The Hundred Couples Danced at the A. O. U. W. Ball.

Good Speeches and Songs Add a Pleasant Variation—The Purim Masquerade—The Third Ward Entertainment.

No more pleasant event has occurred this season than the annual entertainment and banquet of the A. O. U. W. in Cliff's hall last night. Fully 100 couples danced happily to the rise and fall of pretty music and the full measure of pleasure was issued to each one.

No little of the success of such an affair is due to the reception committees, and the gentlemen of last evening were in no way negligent of their duties and the generous hospitality extended made the stranger involuntarily long for home. It was essentially an old-time dance. There was nought but good cheer, pleasure and content.

Pleasantly relieving the succession of dances were the literary exercises, which opened with a well chosen and well delivered address from J. P. Stone, D. G. M. W. of Ogden, having as a subject, "The Principles of the Order." These he fully outlined in a general way, being necessarily cursory.

As the dancing proceeded other diversions were interpolated at sufficiently long intervals to make them admirable. The eleventh ward glee club sang that sweet old song, full of pathos, "Jennie," and responded to a spontaneous encore with "The Soldier's Farewell." There were also a nicely executed violin solo by Ole Bjerkhold, a vocal duet by Messrs. W. W. Calder and George T. Boutwell, which was very pretty, a piano solo by Milo Vincent and a selection by six members of the Spanish Mandolin and Guitar club.

The refreshments consisted of an old-fashioned lunch and were as thoroughly enjoyed as a basket picnic in the woods. Altogether, the members of the order are to be congratulated not only upon the success of the entertainment, but upon the courtesy and heartiness given to each guest.

Following were the committees who were responsible for the success of the affair:

Reception—John Strickler, P. G. M. W.; J. M. Bowman, P. M. W.; R. E. Deighton, P. M. W.; George A. Tinsdale, M. W.; H. L. Richards, M. W.; L. L. Gray, recorder; J. Boehmer, recorder; William Fuller, S. W. D. M. W.; M. W. Mower, T. O. Angell, Dr. W. F. Beer, S. B. H. Johnson, Bolton, T. C. Lewis, W. W. Calder.

Flour—H. S. Beattie, D. G. Calder, John Higham, W. S. Higham, P. Affleck, W. H. Culmer and M. E. Anderson.

The Purim Masquerade.

A very large and well dressed assemblage was that at the Purim masquerade ball last night in Younger's hall. Sixty happy, laughing people in costume, and a thoroughly appreciated dance resulted. A full account will be given in the SUNDAY HERALD.

An Enjoyable Entertainment.

The Third Ward meeting house was crowded last night, and well might it be, for a more meritorious programme was never given within its walls. The entertainment was a complete one. The dialogue of a quartette of juveniles, and the comic recitation of Ed H. Piers were the cause of creating merriment and placing the audience in such a hilarious mood as to demand a repetition.

Thomas Ashworth sang the tenor solo, "Once Again," in such an excellent manner as demanded an encore, which was cheerfully given.

The surprise of the evening was the splendid rendition of White's "Thou Art an Angel," by the youthful soprano Miss Emily Williamson. The young lady possesses a voice of excellent timbre and great promise.

The evening's performance was terminated with the laughable farce, "A Kiss in the Dark," which was cleverly done and kept the audience in a continuous uproar of laughter.

Musical Notes.

Professor Evan Stephens returns this morning from Willard where he has been sojourning.

An informal meeting was held last evening at St. Paul's church with a view towards organizing a permanent church society, whose object is to study Episcopal church music. About twenty-five persons were present.

CAUGHT IN THE DAILY ROUND-UP.

H. M. Bacon and A. M. Grant will start on a junketing tour in the interest of the new sanitarium today. Their itinerary includes Boise City, Helena, Glasgow Springs and Hot Springs, Ark. The amount of information they will be able to pick up should enable them to make the McKinnis' sanitarium a Jim dandy.

Dave Kelley, the political ward boss of Denver, turned up at the Knutsford last evening, and soon became the center of the Salt Lake contingent of Colorado knocked-out politicians. Kelley is a little bit of a man and when he buys clothes orders boy's sizes, but is always careful to qualify this by saying, "I take a man's hat." He had just returned from a four days' trip inspecting Utah oxen. "You people," he said, "might as well make up your minds that they haven't got any oxen as to keep on talking about them. This black stuff is of no commercial value, and unless you can get out the lighter grades in larger dimensions than twelve inches square, there are no prospects for finishing the interior of buildings. If any person will guarantee me a good oxen quarry I will put up as good a plan in your case as in the country. But it will take about $75,000 to open up a quarry after you have found it."

A. V. Hunter and C. Boettcher are here for some deal connected with natural gas, and it may be that they have concluded to pipe the Tascara well to this city.

Major Doney, who is pretty much disgusted with his venture, is said to have made a proposition to sell out his pipe and drilling outfit to the American company and quit the field.

A gentleman who has a knack for getting inside information and feeling a bit of a salt, said that Mr. A. V. Hunter and C. Boettcher's profits, out of the sale of the gas and electric light works, were not far from $300,000. A pretty snug sum for Colorado men to pick up on a single transaction while Salt Lake men were going around with their hands in their pockets looking for something to turn up.

"I make a prediction," said Councilman Simonds last night, "that there won't be an idle man in Salt Lake inside of six weeks." "O, yes there will," rejoined James H. Bacon, there will be Simonds. "I am willing to make it two, returned Simonds, "to take in Ed Richards."

"What do you think of Gladstone now?" ejaculated Dick Mackintosh in his heroic tones as he read the "Grand Old Man's" speech on the Paris conference.

"I don't think much of him," replied W. S. McCormick, at whom the shot was aimed.

"This country will never get any help from England," continued Richard.

"The vote was very encouraging," chimed in Colonel Bonham, "it indicates that the silver sentiment is taking hold of the English people." Donnellan wanted courage limited to the American product. He couldn't get it, so he got through Congress if the ratio was fixed twenty to one. Mackintosh suggested that courage could be limited to the American product by a system of amortization.

The three capitalists talked for half an hour, but the conference didn't come any nearer solving the silver question than the Brussels confab.

Ed Rhodes who returned from Montana yesterday, said that the old miners are returning to Butte and that the big copper mines will all begin work on the 5th.

President Loofbourrow, of the city council, is the new sanitarium company's attorney. This is published for the information of Mayor Baskin. Mr. Loofbourrow did not vote on the question of granting a franchise.

LOCAL SUGGESTS.

The Utah Title, Insurance and Trust company has moved into new quarters on Main street.

REUT SEAROLET, post trader of Fort Duchesne, has sold out his store to Vernal parties.

LOCAL sporting authorities pick Hall and Goddard as the winners in the forthcoming fight at New Orleans.

TRANSMISSION from West Point say the road west to Lawrence farm is in horrible shape, and almost impossible for loaded wagons.

Some transactions yesterday sold his State street restaurant to Colorado parties, and the Fashion restaurant on State street, also changed hands.

The committee appointed to perfect the organization of a territorial charitable association will meet at the Press club rooms in the Scott-Auerbach building at 7:30 this evening.

THE residents of Perkins addition are demanding a city street car fair. A mass meeting was held Monday evening and it was decided to present the matter to the railway company.

THE gospel meetings being conducted this week by Rev. B. J. Clay in the Central Christian church, at the corner of Third East and Fourth South, are increasing in interest and attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Cornell assisted with the church at Monday evening service.

THE families of Messrs. Roden and Stuart, en route to Fish Springs in wagons, were robbed of a trunk and some jewelry while sleeping at the home of H. T. Spencer in West Point. They were sleeping in the barn. The thief or thieves left an old set of harness to replace the plunder.

UTAH WORKS OF ART.

The Paintings Arrive at Chicago—Young Ladies' Handwork.

Executive Commissioner Emery yesterday received a telegram from Secretary McDaniel, stating that the art exhibit had arrived all right, and would immediately go before the national jury.

Certainly the finest exhibit yet completed for the woman's department of Utah's display at the World's fair is the handwork of the Young Ladies' Aid Society, aged respectively 17 and 18 years. It consists of a bed spread, pillow shams, bureau cover and some other articles, all worked in silk and with such taste in design and color as to challenge admiration.

A recherche supper was served and the evening was spent in merry making. The young couple left for California where they will spend the honeymoon visiting San Francisco, Los Angeles and other centers of attraction, and will be absent about a month. Both bride and groom are very popular and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

AN ELEGANT WEDDING.

Mr. Gilbert A. McLean and Miss Mary Spiers United.

A very elegant wedding was that which took place last evening at the residence of Mr. A. Spiers, in the Tenth ward. The contracting parties were Mr. Gilbert A. McLean, the well known railroad engineer and veteran Democrat, and Miss Mary Spiers, daughter of Bishop Spiers.

The bishop performed the ceremony in the presence of a select circle of friends. A recherche supper was served and the evening was spent in merry making. The young couple left for California where they will spend the honeymoon visiting San Francisco, Los Angeles and other centers of attraction, and will be absent about a month. Both bride and groom are very popular and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a blessed thing is memory! How it brings up the pleasures of the past, and hides its unpleasantness! You recall your childhood days, do you not, and wish they would return? You remember the pleasant associations, while the unpleasant ones are forgotten. Perhaps to your mind comes the face of some friend. It was once a pale, sad face. It showed marks of pain, lines of care. It seemed to be looking into the hereafter, the unknown future. And then you recalled how it brightened, how it recovered its rosy hue, how it became a picture of happiness and joy. Do you remember these things? Many people do, and gladly tell how the health returned, how happiness came back, how the world seemed bright. They tell how they were once weak, nervous, perhaps in pain, certainly unhappy. They tell of sleepless nights, restless days, untouching food, unstrung nerves. And then they tell how they became happy, healthy and strong once more. You have heard it often in the past, have you not? You have heard people describe how they were cured and kept in health? You certainly can remember what it is that has so helped people in America. If not, listen to what Mrs. Annie Jenness Miller, who is known universally as the great dress reformer, says: "Six years ago, when suffering from mental care and overwork, I received the most pronounced benefit from the use of that great medicine, Warner's Safe Cure." Ah, now you remember. Now you recall how many people you have heard say this same thing. Now you recall how much you have heard of this great Cure. Now you are ready to admit that memory is usually pleasing, that the highest pleasure comes from perfect health, and that this great remedy has done more to produce and prolong health than any other discovery ever known in the entire history of the whole world.

Housebuilding Is An Art.

That has been practiced among men for a considerable time, and one which we should think might fairly be expected to have reached a reasonable degree of perfection. And so it has. Yet who is there that has not known of houses which have taken fire from "defective flues"? This leads us to emphasize again the importance to you of the good mason who is a so the honest man. We are not altogether disinterested in this. Good chimneys, good flues and stove men, are good friends. We wish you, in your interest as well as our own, to have a Jewel Range and although the Jewel Range is superior to other ranges, it is not superior to physical laws, and needs to be helped by a good draught, such as is secured only by a properly built chimney. Therefore, we say, make sure of the good mason!

And also, make sure of the Jewel Range. It will last you longer and serve you better than any other range that is made. As years go by it will cost you least for repairs. It ought to be in every house in Salt Lake—in Utah—in this whole country. Wherever there is a house without it, that house would be better with it. Ranges have been greatly improved of late years, and the Jewel Range is the result of the advances that have been made.

E. C. COFFIN HARDWARE COMPANY.

PROGRESS BUILDING.

Judicious Use Of Printers Ink

Will bring sure returns. You never hear of a man or corporation who know how to advertise so as to catch the public eye and retain the attention of the readers of the daily press, who is compelled to close the doors and hang out the sign "Assignee's Sale." In legitimate business it is push, enterprise and attention to every detail that brings success.

Let People Know Your Business

Through the same medium as they get all the news, and you will prosper. Let your light be seen of men and the result will be so satisfactory that the yellow metal of the rich and the white metal of the poor will find a resting place in your pockets.
